

Dear Harvard Schools Trust,

At our recent School Committee meeting, the members read about the grants you've awarded to teachers and students this year. They all expressed their appreciation.

From trips to movement chairs to robotics to composting materials — the range is wide.

So many students will benefit. Thank you for all that you do to enhance education in Harvard.

Linda