Linda G. Dwight
Superintendent

September 27, 2017

Dear Members of the Harvard Schools Trust,

On behalf of the School Committee and the leadership team, we thank you for your generous support of the students and teachers at our schools. By providing grant money to the teachers, you encourage creative projects and innovative ideas. With the financial support, teachers are able to expand the resources for their students.

The recent list of awards ranged from a 3D printer to a traveling display of portraits. The breath and scope of these requests shows how encouraged the teachers feel to consider new ideas. Your keen interest in their ideas has created a climate of positive risk-taking and exploration. You are helping us to reach our Vision of becoming and remaining a school district that is dedicated to academic excellence.

We are fortunate to have your on-going support and dedication.

In appreciation,
