

Dear Harvard Schools Trust:

We, the Harvard Destination Imagination team - the lightening Sparks, would like to express our sincerest gratitude to the Harvard Schools Trust for your generous financial and moral support that helped send a group of hard working, creative, and team spirited 5th grade girls to the 2016 Global Finals in Knoxville, TN this year. These girls (Sarah Burns, Claire Kelley, Amita and Asha Khurana, Allie Redinger, Sara Selig, and Siena Stanten) returned having had an experience to treasure for years to come, each one a bit more sure of themselves to tackle their next challenge, whatever that may be. Attached please find the summary of seven girls experiences.

Thanks!
